1. [] informed Mr. Pforzheimer that he had received a call from a friend stating that Mr. Lee of the Staff of the House Appropriations Committee was seeking to recruit personnel for an investigative staff to look into all overseas Governmental activities, including CIA. Mr. Pforzheimer discussed this with Mr. Sprankle, Chief Clerk of the Committee, who stated that there was no present intent to point at CIA, and that Lee was a little anxious in his approach. 25X1C
